Rancher's granddaughter shows her moxie

Jerry Nine
Woodward, OK

A friend of mine is a large rancher and has very nice cattle. His cattle herd would be long stretchy, thick cattle that gain well and he also sells quite a few replacement females and bulls.

His granddaughters show cattle at the local and state level. One granddaughter is very young and not very big so her parents got her a miniature heifer to show. Grandpa and grandma went to the show to watch the granddaughter show her heifer. Grandpa quickly learned from the family, including the granddaughter, that when he referred to her heifer as a dwarf that was not an appropriate term. The granddaughter said, "Grandpa that is a miniature not a dwarf!"

This morning at breakfast we again were covering a lot of topics. And somehow it was mentioned about what some people pay to have their show pigs clipped. One said he heard one dad paid $1,500 to have his kid's pig clipped. Heck, my dad wouldn't have even let us spend $100 for the whole pig let alone pay someone to clip it.

Then one said, "I bet you probably better not let someone film you with a snare in the pig's nose." Then one said, "or a twitch in a horse's mouth." Then one of us—and I won't say who—hollered at the waitress and said, "Hey Dale just said every husband needs one of them for his wife." Yes, we knew the sparks would fly and as long as they were flying toward Dale well, that's all the better. Sorry Dale someone has to be the guinea pig.

A man walked by another man who was completely bald. As he walked by he rubbed the other man's bald head and said, "that feels like my old lady's butt." The bald man felt his own bald head and said, "You know you are right that does feel like your wife's butt."

A cowboy man said this morning that if he and his brother were arguing when they were little and the family was driving down the road his Dad would say, "Don't make me turn this car around." One said, "Did he ever turn the car around?" The cowboy said, "No but he did pull over to the side of the road a few times."

One of my Dad's favorite sayings was "If you cry I will give you something to cry about." The other favorite saying was "I'm going to clean your plow." That plow should have been sparkling clean."

"Editor's note: Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma."

THE NO FLY ZONE

- Reduce spread of disease & infestation
- Eliminates man power

- Reduce costly stress of cattle

- No product waste
- Improve overall health on cows and calves
- Saves pressure on fences

CAPITALIZE ON YOUR INVESTMENT BY PROTECTING YOUR HERD FROM EXTERNAL PARASITES ALL YEAR LONG!

"Mike has a simple formula to prove the value of the oiler. 'If the cattle aren't swatting flies, they are eating grass, making milk and putting pounds on the baby. And if the babies aren't swatting flies, he's retaining that weight to go to market with. That's all you've got to sell is weight of the cow.'"

Elk City Teens Hospitalized After Crash

March 4, 2024 - A late Friday night single vehicle accident has left two Elk City teenagers in critical condition.

According to the collision report provided by the Oklahoma Highway Patrol, the wreck occurred on county road E 1100, 1 mile east of Elk City when the 2012 Buick Lacrosse driven by 18-year-old Amelia J. Shawn departed the road to the right striking a barbed wire fence and a utility pole. Troopers said the vehicle then traveled off an embankment and rolled end over end coming to rest on its top in a dry creek bottom.

As a result, Shawn was flown to OU Trauma in Oklahoma City where she was admitted in critical condition with trunk internal injuries.

A passenger in the car, 19-year-old Rachel K. Putman was also flown to OU Trauma and admitted in critical condition with trunk internal and leg injuries.

Troopers said both occupants were wearing seat belts at the time of the crash.

OHP also said the cause of the crash remains under investigation.

Crews Respond To Butler Church Fire

March 1, 2024 - Fire crews battled a church fire near Butler and thanks to their efforts and the weather they may have prevented another bad wildfire from spreading.

The fire occurred at the German Free Will Baptist Church northwest of the Custer County community at noon on Thursday and saw crews from the Butler, Leedey, Custer City, Clinton, and Weatherford Fire Departments respond to put out the blaze before it could spread to a nearby pasture.

Crews also credit Thursday's cooler weather that brought with it rain, sleet, and snow as a reason the fire did not spread to the grassland as fast as it could have.

The cause of the fire remains under investigation.

ECHS Student Serves as Senate Page

February 29, 2024 - By Landry Brewer - Elk City High School senior Jackson Ivester recently spent a week at the Capitol in Oklahoma City learning the art of legislating.

Ivester served as a page for the state Senate from Monday, February 12 through Thursday, February 15.

Ivester's sponsoring senator was Brent Howard—who represents Oklahoma's Senate District 38, which includes Elk City—but he worked for any senator who needed him.

"I would mostly run errands for senators, but I learned a lot about the process of lawmaking," Ivester said.

In addition to his daily work, he and his fellow Senate Pages also participated in Pageville, a fictitious community for which the teenagers acted as legislators. The pages met on the Senate floor for a mock session, and Ivester spoke in support of a bill that he authored.

"We followed Senate procedure, and it was really cool," Ivester said.

One of the senators advised the pages that if they want to go into politics, they should major in History or English in college. "He said you gotta know a lot of history, and you gotta do a lot of writing," Ivester said.

Fittingly, Ivester is taking two college classes from SWOSU at Elk City High School this semester—a History class and an English Composition class.

The ECHS senior plans to attend the University of Oklahoma in Norman in the fall, though he hasn't yet chosen a major.

Ivester thoroughly enjoyed his page experience. "It was great—I'd recommend it to everybody," he said.
