Wildfire impact tugs at the heart of a cowboy

There are very few things that make an ol' rancher or cowboy cry. One would definitely be the loss of a child or his spouse.

Another would probably be having to put down his saddlehorse or his favorite dog. This past week some of us revisited a scene that in all that's not a pretty sight, but even in all this mess you know you need to thank God as it could have been worse. Several neighbors told me they barely got out of their houses in time as they were engulfed in flames.

I did read that two people lost their lives in Texas. A few days ago it was reported there were 1,075,000 acres burned in Texas and 115,000 acres in Oklahoma. Farmers and ranchers are the most giving people in a disaster like this with lots of hay pouring in. I say the same thing to all these ranchers who experienced this tragedy these past few days that I said a few years ago to the workers at the sale barn after a long tiring year, and that saying is, "Only the tough survive."

Pray for rain, please, for all this area soon as this desert-looking country needs it.

Some of you probably think I am rude to my sisters, but if I was nice to them they would think something was wrong. After these grass fires I was helping my older sister move some of her cows. She said, "I will go out there with you this afternoon as I have some good ideas of what to do."

I said, "I'm sure you will have plenty of ideas, but I doubt you can say good ones."

"Editor's note: Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma."

Jerry Nine

would make you sick and probably bring a tear to your eye.

We saw miles of burnt pasture where you could not find one blade of grass and only some stubs of what was sagebrush and dead cows and calves all along the way while trying to find something that survived. Some cows had both eyes burned to where they couldn't see. And utters were burned so that even if the cow lives she will never raise another calf.

Some cows bawled for their calves, and some calves bawled for their mothers. All

THE NO FLY ZONE

- Reduce spread of disease & infestation
- Eliminates man power
- Increase daily rate of gain
- Reduce costly stress of cattle
- No product waste
- Improve overall health on cows and calves
- Saves pressure on fences

"Mike has a simple formula to prove the value of the oiler. "If the cattle aren't swatting flies, they are eating grass, making milk and putting pounds on the baby. And if the babies aren't swatting flies, he's retaining that weight to go to market with. That's all you've got to sell is weight of the cow."

Elk City Woman Accused of Stealing and Cashing Checks

March 7, 2024 An Elk City woman has been charged in Beckham County after being accused of stealing checks from her employer and cashing them for a large sum.

According to court records 31-year-old Kayla Shanae Smith was charged February 26 with one count of 2nd degree burglary and 31 counts of second degree forgery after she allegedly broke into her bosses office and stole the checks while employed at an Elk City hotel.

The affidavit stated the manager of the hotel was made aware of the suspicious checks by the bank where the checks were cashed at. It stated that the first check was cashed in October 2022, and in total 31 checks were chased for a total of $18,299.12.

Police were provided a cell phone video recorded by the manager of him confronting the defendant about the missing checks. The affidavit said that she would allegedly admit to the crime and had asked the manager to not press charges - saying she would work off the debt.

Police said that during an inspection of the general manager's office, they would note what appeared to pry marks on the office's door, indicating a forced entry.

Bond for Smith was set at $25,000.

Her next court date is scheduled for March 18.

ECHS Students Enroll in SWOSU Classes

March 7, 2024 - By Landry Brewer - Several Elk City High School students are getting an early start in college.

Southwestern Oklahoma State University-Sayre Registrar Terry Billey spent the day recently at ECHS enrolling students in SWOSU fall classes that will be taught at the high school.

"Elk City Schools asked if we'd be willing to teach classes on the high school campus beginning last fall, and the arrangement has worked out wonderfully," said SWOSU-Sayre Site Coordinator and math faculty member Bill Swartwood.

ECHS administrators expect at least 75 of their students to take SWOSU classes taught by Sayre and Weatherford faculty at ECHS in the fall.

SWOSU faculty are also teaching classes at ECHS this semester.

American Government & Politics, English Composition I, History of Rock N Roll, Medical Terminology, and College Algebra are the SWOSU classes being offered at ECHS next fall.

Many classes taught at the SWOSU campus in Sayre are broadcast live via Zoom for students who can't make it to Sayre, providing greater flexibility to obtain a college education.

For more information about SWOSU-Sayre classes, call 580-928-5533. Fall classes begin Aug. 19.

Stitt Comments on Recent Wildfires

March 11, 2024 - During a recent appearance on KECO's The Early Morning Show, Oklahoma Gov. Kevin Stitt talked about the recent wildfires in Texas and Oklahoma and the relief efforts that have come from the state.

He said as soon as the fires broke out a couple weeks ago, he activated multiple agencies and also signed an executive order to help expedite the process of transporting much needed hay for livestock in the affected areas.

"We immediately got our emergency management center activated. I've got the Oklahoma Forestry Service, OHP, the Agriculture Department, ODOT, National Guard - everybody kind of focused on what the needs are making sure we can waive permits, requirements, weight restrictions in order to get hay out there to western Oklahoma."

As a result, a convoy of 6 semis and 8 hay bale dump trucks delivered over 250 bales of round bale hay to a location near Arnett on Saturday alone.

The Smokehouse Creek Fire, which originated near Stinnett, Texas on February 26 and had crossed over into Ellis and Roger Mills Counties, has consumed over 1,058,000 acres and is currently 89% contained.

According to the March 11 Fire Situation Report filed by the Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food & Forestry, fire weather could be returning to the area this week saying "Fire danger will continue to increase through Wednesday in western Oklahoma ahead of two approaching cold fronts. A weak cold front will attempt to push into far northwestern Oklahoma Tuesday evening before retreating back north. Very low relative humidity values along and west of a line from Woods County to Beckham County on Tuesday that show little promise of recovering overnight extending the burning period. Wednesday will present a bit more widespread fire weather and wildfire concern in western Oklahoma with warm, dry and breezy conditions".

WHITE DENTAL CARE

Drs. Mori & Teri White, DDS

Sedation Dentistry Calms Fears...

Take a pill and snooze through your dental appointment.

For many Americans, going to the dentist is a frightful event. If you are one of the 145 million people who avoid the dentist due to fear, we have the solution... Sedation Dentistry.

You can now experience your dental appointment through a totally relaxed and comfortable environment. With the help of Sedation Dentistry, you will wake up to find that your dental appointment is over and the restorations have been completed painlessly.

For those with a busy schedule, we can accomplish more dentistry in one appointment which means fewer visits to the dentist.

Sedation Dentistry is available for everything from simple restoration to the most complex procedures. We are very sensitive to our patients needs, especially those with high fear and apprehension. Now we can put an end to anxiety with this safe and wonderful technique of sedation.

We are proud to be able to offer Sedation Dentistry and offer hope to those who have been avoiding the dentist due to fear. If you would like to know more, call our team with your questions.
