Still on the hunt for needed rain

Jerry Nine
Woodward, OK

We missed the rain the other day we desperately needed particularly in all that burned area. And sadly the weather app says no rain is in sight but I do know apps do not control the rain—God does—so pray for rain over all that area that burned.

After the sale today a rancher gladly told me the El Nino has changed and it is supposed to turn dry.

He said that is starting in May and another said this fall. I don't like to think negative so I'm just hoping and praying that doesn't happen.

Recently a lady called me from Mobetie, Texas. She has a lot of cattle and very nice ones at that. She called to ask me how I survived with the fires. I told her I was very fortunate with one pasture only half burned and the cows were on the side where it didn't burn or else the hired help honked them over there.

Most of my neighbors weren't that lucky with most losing 30 to 50 head. I know some ranchers in the Texas panhandle lost a lot more. I asked her how she got along. She said she was very fortunate. As the fire was getting close, she said she told God, "Here is my house and land. It is in your hands so if it is supposed to burn it is up to you."

She said it burned right up to the house and quit burning. She also felt very fortunate as she has two boys who are in their 40s and both are volunteer firefighters and both were safe. She said during these fires she left her house and went to where the firefighters were and cooked for them. She is a nice lady.

I walked into the bank and employees asked, "Do you have any words of wisdom?" I said, "No but I'm sure I have a lot of words." Unfortunately they all agreed.

A friend of mine lost his cow dog. He was definitely not the type to cuss but he did come close as he said, "doggone."

It seems like most cowboys are also gamblers because it seems like they are always raising the steaks.

A friend of mine who is a cowboy and is also very bow legged lost his job. They said he couldn't keep his calves together.

"Editor's note: Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma."

THE NO FLY ZONE

- Reduce spread of disease & infestation
- Eliminates man power
- Increase daily rate of gain
- Reduce costly stress of cattle

- No product waste
- Improve overall health on cows and calves
- Saves pressure on fences

"Mike has a simple formula to prove the value of the oiler. 'If the cattle aren't swatting flies, they are eating grass, making milk and putting pounds on the baby. And if the babies aren't swatting flies, he's retaining that weight to go to market with. That's all you've got to sell is weight of the cow.'"

Gun Safety Bill Passes Committee

March 15, 2024 - OK House of Rep. Press Release - Rep. Nick Archer, R-Elk City, passed a bill out of the Appropriations & Budget Committee on Thursday that would encourage responsible gun ownership.

Starting from the tax year 2025, House Bill 3427 proposes to provide a tax credit equal to 50% of the purchase price of a gun safe or other qualified lockable storage device, up to a maximum of $1,000.

"The idea is to incentivize individuals to store firearms safely," Archer said. "House Bill 3427 is a proactive measure designed to promote responsible gun ownership while preventing firearm accidents, theft and unauthorized access."

Archer said the National Rifle Association and the Oklahoma Rifle Association, as well as Everytown for Gun Safety, agree on the measure, a topic that typically divides opinions.

"This unified commitment to responsible gun ownership bridges the gap between staunch defenders of Second Amendment rights and advocates for gun violence prevention," Archer said. "I was glad this measure passed easily and look forward to seeing it widely supported on the House floor."

HB3427 passed the committee with bipartisan support, with one legislator, a Republican, voting against the measure. It is now eligible to be heard on the House floor.

Additionally, the bookstore will provide the opportunity to order graduation announcements, stoles, and diploma frames.

The SWOSU Bookstore will continue to have regalia available until graduation day and can arrange shipping if necessary. For any inquiries regarding graduation regalia, please contact Ashley Hancock, Director of the Alma Mater Merc, at Ashley.hancock@swosu.edu.

Please note, the deadline for graduation applications is approaching on Monday, March 25. Graduating seniors are encouraged to apply for graduation online or reach out to registrar@swosu.edu if they have any questions.
