Cattle futures can be a puzzle at times

Jerry Nine
Woodward, OK

I sometimes question how much cattle futures resemble reality in our business. Cattle futures are probably a necessary tool as it takes so much money to operate with no protection.

But with the funds in-out business and a lot of trading going on without a person making the decision and a computer often trading on the speed of trading down to a millisecond, where does it leave an ol' farmer like myself, trying to use the brain God gave me—or the lack of brain—that I was given?

On most feeder cattle futures we are $20 per hundredweight lower than we were a few weeks ago. Maybe we were too high then, but even at $250 per hundredweight that is a lot higher than I thought we would get several months ago.

We could use another rain, but in our area that is fairly common.

A lot of those grazing cattle that were brought costing $1,800 per head and more had better hit a high market when they sell them as the interest on that calf adds up quite a bit.

Most cattle auctions on Monday quoted their cattle under 700 pounds to be $3 to $7 per hundredweight lower. Our cattle on feed estimates show cattle on feed at 102% with placements at 92.1% and marketings at 88.2%.

A man said at breakfast this morning, "They just figured my taxes, and I owe the government $1,500. My brother-in-law hasn't worked in two years, and he is getting a healthy check from the government for $6,000." He said something is wrong with that picture.

A friend just picked up a sale bill that had lots of vehicles for sale. He said to me, "Here is what you need. Here is a Vesheer car 1957 for sale." Then he said, "Wait a minute, I guess that says Classic not Vesheer." I'm guessing his eyesight has gotten worse in those 65 years.

Several years ago, one of my boys came home and said he got a part in the school play. He said, "I will play a man who's been married 25 years." I said, "Son, next time maybe you will get a speaking part."

My older sister sent me several recipes of ways to cook with a Crock Pot. Most all of them were recipes that my other sister had sent her. So I texted her and said, "You should put out a cookbook and title it 'My sister's favorite Crock Pot recipes.'" She quickly informed me that several of those were hers.

Editor's note: The views expressed here are the author's own and do not represent the view of High Plains Journal. Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma.

"Mike has a simple formula to prove the value of the oiler. 'If the cattle aren't swatting flies, they are eating grass, making milk and putting pounds on the baby. And if the babies aren't swatting flies, he's retaining that weight to go to market with. That's all you've got to sell is weight of the cow.'"

Relay for Life Fundraiser to be Hosted at SWOSU on April 26

April 19, 2024 - Southwestern Oklahoma State University (SWOSU) is hosting the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, the world's largest fundraising event dedicated to helping communities in their fight against cancer, on Friday, April 26 from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. at the SWOSU Wellness Center. This event aims to raise awareness and funds for the American Cancer Society.

Relay for Life is a community-driven initiative where teams take turns walking or running around a track. Participants enjoy music, food, entertainment, and activities while supporting those affected by cancer. Funds are raised through team commitment fees and individual donations, with each participant aiming to receive donations from family, friends, companies, or corporations.

This year's fundraising goal is set at $25,000, with current donations standing at $14,444. The proceeds will be allocated toward the American Cancer Society.

Participants are encouraged to register their teams online, with 8-15 members on each team, though teams can vary in size. Pecina's Mexican Café will cater the Survivor/Caregiver Dinner at 5 p.m. in support of the fight against cancer. The university invites everyone, including cancer survivors and caregivers, to join this community event and support the cause.

Sedation Dentistry Calms Fears...
Take a pill and snooze through your dental appointment.

For many Americans, going to the dentist is a frightful event. If you are one of the 145 million people who avoid the dentist due to fear, we have the solution... Sedation Dentistry.

You can now experience your dental appointment through a totally relaxed and comfortable environment. With the help of Sedation Dentistry, you will wake up to find that your dental appointment is over and the restorations have been completed painlessly.

For those with a busy schedule, we can accomplish more dentistry in one appointment which means fewer visits to the dentist.

Sedation Dentistry is available for everything from simple restoration to the most complex procedures. We are very sensitive to our patients needs, especially those with high fear and apprehension. Now we can put an end to anxiety with this safe and wonderful technique of sedation.

We are proud to be able to offer Sedation Dentistry and offer hope to those who have been avoiding the dentist due to fear. If you would like to know more, call our team with your questions.
