Thanksgiving gives us reason to say thank you

Jerry Nine
Woodward, OK

Thank you are two easy words to say and, for a lot of us, are not said enough.

Most of us take for granted how fortunate we were to be born in America with all the freedoms we have. Without those fighting for freedom all those years, we could easily be living under a dictatorship.

Even in the Bible, Jesus healed 10 people with leprosy, and only one came back to say thank you. Jesus said, "Where are the other nine?" One thing I tried to instill in my four boys was to say thank you.

Often, I would peel an apple or wash off grapes for them to eat, but they soon realized they had had one second to say thank you, or they didn't get the fruit. Even when a clerk hands you the item you bought and your change and then look at you like, "Move out of the way," it irritates me that they don't say thank you.

We tried to say thank you every time after selling customers' cattle. One time, one gal who worked there said, "Doing that, you are just kissing their rear." I said, "No, when I get too proud to say thank you, then I didn't deserve their business."

As a lot of your families come in for Thanksgiving, try to think of those who have no family to be with and take them a plate of food. I think of every person who has served in the military and call them or take them cookies and say thank you.

The preacher said on Sunday, "God does not say I will, but instead he says I am now." It's not that God is not speaking to us. It's that we are not listening.

One of the guys who worked for me at the sale barn that started when he was 18 years old had a birthday the other day. I texted him and said, "Happy birthday. How old are you?" He replied, "28." He said, "Do you realize I have worked at the sale barn for 10 years?"

I said, "Wow, but working at the sale barn is the last step up just before heaven." He said, "It is more like a bullet train that gets you there early."

Just before Thanksgiving dinner do you know what Dad said when he was asked to say grace? "Grace."

One memory of Thanksgiving was when the family went to my aunt's for dinner. As we knocked on the door, she immediately started apologizing as she had overslept and didn't get the turkey in the oven soon enough. I guess we ol' farmers would say we had Thanksgiving supper, but you city folk would still call it dinner.

Sedation Dentistry Calms Fears...

Take a pill and snooze through your dental appointment.

For many Americans, going to the dentist is a frightful event. If you are one of the 145 million people who avoid the dentist due to fear, we have the solution... Sedation Dentistry.

You can now experience your dental appointment through a totally relaxed and comfortable environment. With the help of Sedation Dentistry, you will wake up to find that your dental appointment is over and the restorations have been completed painlessly.

For those with a busy schedule, we can accomplish more dentistry in one appointment which means fewer visits to the dentist.

Sedation Dentistry is available for everything from simple restoration to the most complex procedures. We are very sensitive to our patients needs, especially those with high fear and apprehension. Now we can put an end to anxiety with this safe and wonderful technique of sedation.

We are proud to be able to offer Sedation Dentistry and offer hope to those who have been avoiding the dentist due to fear. If you would like to know more, call our team with your questions.

Fatality Collision Near Bridgeport

December 2, 2024 - A fatal crash occurred on Saturday morning at approximately 10:30 a.m., along Old Route 66 Road, 4/10 mile east of County Road 2590, near Bridgeport in Caddo County.

The accident involved a 1956 Ford Pickup driven by 62-year-old Jimmy L. Wilhoit of Hinton. Wilhoit was transported to Weatherford Hospital, where he succumbed to massive injuries. Medical staff pronounced him deceased upon arrival.

A passenger in the vehicle, 42-year-old Clayton W. Adams of Austin, Texas, was airlifted to OU Medical Center. Adams remains hospitalized in critical condition with severe internal injuries to the head and trunk.

Accident Details

The pickup was traveling eastbound on Old Route 66 when it encountered a rough patch of roadway. This caused the vehicle to go into a broadside slide, veer off the road to the south, and collide with a utility pole and a pipe fence. Both occupants were ejected from the vehicle before it overturned, coming to rest on its roof.

Investigation and Contributing Factors

The driver's condition prior to the crash is currently unknown, and the cause of the collision remains under investigation. The pickup was not equipped with seatbelts. The weather at the time of the crash was clear and dry, and the roadway was a two-lane, undivided asphalt road.

The collision was investigated by Trooper Brent Tucker of the Oklahoma Highway Patrol's Caddo County detachment, Troop G. He was assisted at the scene by the Caddo County Sheriff's Department, Hinton Police and Fire Departments, Air Evac, and AMR Ambulance Service.

Further details will be released as the investigation continues.

SWOSU Collegiate Farm Bureau Wins Outstanding Collegiate Chapter Award

December 3, 2024 - Dr. Jerry Dunn and students from Southwestern Oklahoma State University (SWOSU) attended the 2024 Oklahoma Farm Bureau (OKFB) Annual Meeting from November 8–10, 2024. The meeting included general sessions and updates on the agriculture industry, as well as business meetings where policy resolutions were approved.

SWOSU's Collegiate Farm Bureau chapter was represented by members including chapter president Clancey Harris, who also competed in the Collegiate Discussion Meet, Grady Gaunt, and Parker Jacks. The students had the opportunity to meet notable figures such as Congressman Frank Lucas, U.S. Senator James Lankford, OKFB President Rodd Moesel, and former State Senator Mike Schulz.

SWOSU's chapter received the Rodd Moesel Award for Outstanding Collegiate Chapter. This award recognizes the top Collegiate Farm Bureau chapters that excel in improving their local activities while also supporting the broader Farm Bureau organization.

For more information about the award, visit: <https://www.okfarmbureau.org/news/southwestern-oklahoma-state-university-recognized-as-top-collegiate-farm-bureau-chapter/>
