Stocker cattle also have their share of challenges

chute, but be sure and read the label and make sure it is safe for giving it to a pregnant cow or a calf nursing a pregnant cow.

With this huge challenge of keeping these calves alive, plus the cost of a calf, I think you could easily see $50 per hundredweight difference between the calves vaccinated right and those with no vaccine or only a blackleg shot.

My son just texted me and said I got all those cows back on the smoke. I knew what he meant since we call that place smoot. But, if you know me, you would know I texted back and said, "Oh, we have a fire there!?" Lucky for him, lots of times I can't tell whether it's his spelling or the phone.

Last Thursday I bought some small, thin calves, knowing better but did it anyway. I thought I can put a big bull in front and 31 small calves in the back. When I got on the west side of town, I filled up full of gas and, sure enough, two on the very back were down.

So I turned around, went back to the sale and, yes, you know the story then, I said, "Lord, please let them be alive and not trampled even though I made a dumb mistake." Sure enough, they were fine. I guess I should lecture myself because I'm sure the boys would have gotten to hear how you can't crowd thin, small calves. Sometimes I have to relearn the same thing time and time again.

Do you know what the cowgirl said at her second rodeo? This ain't my first rodeo.

Former Blair High School Teacher Arrested for Misconduct Following OSBI Investigation

January 27, 2025 - Blair, OK - The Blair Police Department has enlisted the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) to investigate allegations of misconduct involving a teacher and student at Blair High School.

Following an investigation by OSBI special agents, probable cause was established, leading to the execution of a search warrant at the residence of 30-year-old Brittany Lee Gray, a former counselor and teacher at the school. Evidence revealed that Gray had engaged in inappropriate communication and physical contact with the student on multiple occasions.

On January 24, 2025, Gray was arrested and booked into the Jackson County Jail on charges of Rape and Destroying Evidence.

The OSBI extends its gratitude to the Blair Police Department, the District 3 District Attorney's Office Task Force, the Jackson County Sheriff's Office, and the Internet Crimes Against Children Unit Task Force for their collaboration. Blair Public Schools also provided crucial cooperation throughout the investigation.

Canute Duo Shine at the 2025 National Western Stock Show Auction

January 26, 2025 - Denver, CO - The Auction of Junior Livestock Champions at the 2025 National Western Stock Show broke records, generating an impressive $637,000 across the top eight champion animals. This shattered the previous high of $585,000 set in 2023.

Sayde Allen, a freshman at Canute High School, and her Grand Champion Goat, Humble, stole the show by selling for a record-breaking $45,000. Likewise, Clay Randall, a junior at Canute High School, proudly showcased Tucker, the Grand Champion Lamb, which fetched a remarkable $52,500, another record.

The auction is the culmination of hard work and dedication by junior exhibitors, aged 9 to 18, participating in 4-H and FFA. It provides an extraordinary marketplace for ribbon-winning steers, lambs, hogs, and goats, while encouraging the next generation to pursue careers in agriculture and further their education.

Of the thousands of junior market animals at the Stock Show, only 98 qualify for this elite auction. Most of the winning bid proceeds go directly to the exhibitors, while a portion supports the National Western Scholarship Trust, empowering future agricultural leaders.

Woman Sentenced for Impersonating Clinton Teacher in Racially Charged Social Media Attack

January 23, 2025 -rapaho, OK - Casee Liza Hughes of Oklahoma City has been sentenced to seven years in prison following a sentencing hearing in Arapaho at the Custer County Courthouse. Hughes, who pleaded no contest to charges of falsely impersonating another to create liability and computer fraud, was accused of creating fake social media accounts to impersonate Clinton High School teacher Ashley Kelley and send racially charged messages in 2022.

Authorities allege Hughes meticulously duplicated Kelley's Facebook profile and used it to send a racist message to the parent of a Native American student. The message included racial slurs, stereotypes, and referenced Kelley's role as a teacher. Hughes also created a TikTok account to amplify the false narrative by sharing a video containing a screenshot of the message, which further implicated Kelley. This triggered widespread backlash, including death threats and public harassment directed at Kelley, her family, and Clinton Public Schools.

The investigation revealed Hughes had a personal motive, stemming from her connection to Kelley's then-boyfriend. Prosecutors presented evidence, including messages from Hughes and her associates, Google searches, and prior harassment incidents.

Hughes was sentenced to 10 years for impersonation, with three years suspended, and five years for computer fraud, fully suspended. Additionally, she is barred from using social media for 15 years. However, the hearing took an unexpected turn when Hughes overdosed on insulin mid-proceedings, prompting an emergency response. Despite her outburst and medical incident, Judge Gatlin upheld the sentence, postponing restitution discussions to a later date.
