The Red, White, and Moo

by: Jerry Nine – Woodward, Okla.

As we celebrate our independence—July 4th—let us never forget why we are free. And most of us have had freedom all of our life.

It's easy to take it for granted. Would I want to sacrifice my life so that someone else can live in freedom, or would you? Can you truly give up your life so that my kids are free or my wife is free?

But thankfully many have fought for freedom so we can enjoy all the freedoms we have. Remain thankful. Look around and make a special effort to tell those men and women who served thank you. And also the ones who have lost a loved one in battle—be a little sweeter. Thank God we were able to be born in America.

We are so privileged.

Fat cattle on Friday traded at $223.75–$225.00 which is definitely lower but still an extremely high price. That price is even higher than we thought we could ever get to. We can eat a little chicken and a little pork but not a lot. It was mostly raised on beef and that's what I like.

Other countries have figured that out too and that's one main reason we have reached these levels that we have. When you have 600-pound steers bringing $2100 and 900-pound steers bringing $1800 and more that's a good market with some optimism.

Up north I saw where 337-pound steers brought $620 which is over $2.00 per head. They evidently have a better feed plan than I have. A 337-pound steer can do a lot.

If you are going to be happy in life, you have to have the intent to be happy. We always have the intent to be ourselves all day. And then we might realize why some do not want to be around us. I remember my dad saying many times: "You might as well enjoy it. It's all the same price."

I was at Walmart and a lady was checking my groceries. She said, "Your total is $379.60." I said, "Ma'am, give my stuff back. I'm going to go thru self-checkout."

If your girlfriend texts you: "Good morning sorry I fell asleep last night text back no problem I just got home let me hop in the shower" If you are attracted to both men and women but neither is attracted to you, then I'm afraid you are bi-yourself.

I saw a man wearing a shirt the other day which said: "If genders confuse you then go try to milk a bull."

Editor's note: The views expressed here are the author's own and do not represent the view of The Penny News. Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma.

Wheat Harvest Reaches 55 Percent Completion in Oklahoma

June 26, 2025 • The 2025 Oklahoma wheat harvest is moving quickly, with many producers and custom harvesters finishing up in the southwest. Significant progress has also been made across central and far western parts of the state, as combines now roll in nearly every wheat-producing region — including the north central corridor near the Kansas border.

However, wet conditions are still causing delays. Northern Oklahoma fields, especially around Kremlin, Blackwell, Ponca City, and Braman, remain muddy from recent storms. The same is true in the Afton and Miami areas. In some cases, harvesters are skipping low-lying spots to return once they dry out.

The Panhandle has also seen some delays in dryland wheat harvest due to early-week rain.

Test weights have slipped because of last week's heavy moisture but are still averaging around 59 pounds per bushel statewide. Yields vary, typically ranging from the mid-30s to mid-50s. Some fields under intensive management have produced 60 to 80 bushels per acre. Statewide average protein is holding steady at 11.1 percent.

As of today, the Oklahoma Wheat Commission estimates the 2025 harvest is 55 percent complete.

Deputies Recover Stolen Vehicle Using Surveillance Footage, Arrest Suspect

June 26, 2025 • Beckham County, OK – Beckham County deputies recovered a stolen vehicle and arrested a suspect Friday (June 20) after a sharp-eyed deputy and some solid police work helped crack the case.

According to Sheriff Derek Manning, the situation began when a deputy stopped to check on what appeared to be an abandoned vehicle along the interstate early Friday morning. Sheriff Manning, who happened to be in the area, joined the deputy at the scene. "There were a couple of things that looked a little bit suspicious to us," said Manning. "But we checked it, it didn't come back stolen, and we couldn't reach the registered owner. So we left it there with the intent of checking on it later."

Later that afternoon, the vehicle triggered what law enforcement calls a "delayed hit" in the NCIC (National Crime Information Center) database. When an item is entered into NCIC as stolen, wanted, or missing, it can retroactively alert officers who previously ran checks. Deputies returned to the scene and began canvassing nearby businesses. Video footage from one location showed a person exiting the vehicle and heading in a certain direction. Following the trail through multiple businesses, deputies ultimately found the suspect still at one of the locations.

The man was arrested on the spot for possession of a stolen vehicle. Investigators were able to identify the registered owner, who turned out to be an acquaintance of the suspect. The vehicle was safely recovered and returned. Sheriff Manning praised the effort, saying, "That was very good police work by the deputies that followed up and went the extra mile, rather than just writing it off as an abandoned vehicle."

Man Caught Climbing Courthouse Scaffolding Says He 'Wanted to See the Sunset'

June 26, 2025 • Elk City, OK — Beckham County deputies got an unexpected surprise when they spotted a man scaling the scaffolding around the county courthouse in downtown Sayre. According to Sheriff Derek Manning, deputies were leaving the sheriff's office last week when they noticed the man at the very top of the structure, apparently preparing to climb onto the courthouse roof.

"Deputies were walking out of the sheriff's office and looked up... saw a guy up on the very top of the scaffolding getting ready to climb onto the roof," said Manning. "Turned out to be intoxicated, of course, and was using that level of judgment."

Rather than pursuing the man up the scaffolding, deputies used the PA system to call out to him.

"They got on the loudspeaker and said, 'Hey, come down from there,' and he did," Manning said. "Didn't have to climb up and wrestle him... it didn't turn out to be a Die Hard movie or anything."

The man told deputies he climbed the scaffolding because he "just wanted to see the sunset."

No injuries were reported. Sheriff Manning noted he's contacted the commissioner about the scaffolding's security and recommended that the construction company re-evaluate access to the courthouse roof.

"It was safely handled and, once again, good police work," Manning said. "You just never know."
