When a Cow Has Ideas

by: Jerry Nine – Woodward, Okla.

I was talking to my sister this morning. She said they were weaning calves and working them. Then she proceeds to tell me that a few days ago a cow that they had penned with some others decided to charge her husband and daughter. She said, I don't know why this cow got so mad out of the blue.

Well, maybe I should have reminded her that a cow is expensive. I told her, no cussing today. Only nice words, then be like me and my family always do. She said we are working on that.

There are so many stories that come out when a husband and wife work cattle together. Many times the wife walks back to the house before the job is finished, as we men tend to holler or expect you to read our mind.

A man called about buying him some Brangus heifers to breed or some bred cows. He was telling me a few years ago a tornado blew his house away, so now he is living in one of those houses referred to as "tiny house." He also said his wife had left him. After that his ex asked him if he was going to remarry. He said, I told her if you get one arm cut off, you don't go cut the other one off too. I didn't ask him if he had been married several times or not, but he did say, you know, if you keep dividing your stuff, pretty soon you are down to zero. But he said, you know, now that I think about it, maybe zero is a better option.

On Friday cattle futures went down the limit, and anytime that happens, then they move to expanded limits, which is one and a half times the already too high limits. Thus live cattle Monday can move 10 1/2 more, and feeder cattle can move 13 1/2 out more. Trump had said beef was too high and was making a deal with another country to import more. There could have been a better week for that announcement.

As I am gathering yearling steers off grass this week, oh well, I should look at the bright side. Maybe I won't have to pay as much income tax.

I have the body of a rugby player. I guess I should get him out of my deep freeze. I told my sister that story. She said most people don't like sick humor. I said, yeah, I guess it's me.

At the airport last week I heard a daughter say to her Mom, as they were dragging her 3 suitcases, "Mom, you took 27 outfits for this 3 day trip."

Editor's note: The views expressed here are the author's own and do not represent the view of The Penny News. Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma.

Driver killed in single-vehicle crash north of Putnam

October 17, 2025 • Putnam, OK — A Lawton woman died Thursday after a single-vehicle crash on Highway 183 north of County Road 760 in Dewey County, according to the Oklahoma Highway Patrol.

Troopers said Karen T. Woodward, 78, was driving south on Highway 183 about 2:47 p.m. when her vehicle went off the right side of the road. The vehicle continued through the grass for roughly 212 feet south and 14 feet west before striking a culvert about a quarter-mile north of County Road 760.

After hitting the culvert, the vehicle went airborne, rolled more than once, then came down on its front hood and driver-side roof. It rotated again and struck the rear bumper before coming to rest on its wheels, OHP reported.

Woodward was wearing a seat belt. She had no passengers. She died from injuries sustained in the crash. Next of kin have been notified.

The collision occurred in Troop H's area. The investigation is in its preliminary stages and information is subject to change, authorities said.

Search warrant: Man says SWOSU freshman died after fight, body left near Sulphur

October 16, 2025 • Weatherford, OK — An 18-year-old charged in connection with the death of Southwestern Oklahoma State University freshman Logan Musil told investigators the student died after an accidental fall during a drug-fueled fight, according to a federal search warrant released Wednesday.

The warrant says agents questioned Cameron Lewis after Musil's gaming chair and keyboard were found in Lewis' dorm room. Lewis first told authorities he met Musil on campus, drove him to his home in Purcell on Sept. 12, then dropped him at a residence in Edmond. Investigators said his story changed several times.

OSBI agents reported Lewis was reluctant to surrender his phone. Data from the device led investigators to a wooded area near Veterans Lake in Sulphur, where Musil's body was found. Lewis later told investigators he and Musil had been high on mushrooms and got into a physical fight. He said Musil fell on a rock, was knocked unconscious, and that he panicked and moved the body into the woods after hearing Musil take his last breath.

According to the warrant, investigators seized an SUV believed to have been used to transport the body. Lewis told agents he threw Musil's cellphone into the lake.

Lewis is charged with abuse of a corpse. The case remains under investigation.

BACKGROUND

SWOSU Police asked the OSBI on Oct. 5 to investigate after Musil, 18, was reported missing the night of Sept. 30. On Oct. 8, OSBI, the Murray County Sheriff's Office, Chickasaw Lighthorse Police, and the National Park Service searched near Veterans Lake in Sulphur and found a deceased adult male. The Office of the Chief Medical Examiner identified the victim as Musil. Lewis was arrested Oct. 9 in Weatherford and booked into the Custer County Jail. Federal prosecutors will determine additional charges. Authorities say the investigation is ongoing.

WTC Sayre adds advanced police training simulator, open to area agencies

October 13, 2025 • Sayre, OK — Western Technology Center in Sayre has purchased a high-tech training simulator that local law enforcement can use for both driving and scenario-based response, according to Beckham

County Sheriff Derek Manning.

Manning said reserve deputy John Currid, who serves as WTC's criminal justice instructor, alerted the sheriff's office that the system would be available to agencies in the region and asked if the department wanted to certify an instructor. During his weekly appearance on The Early Morning Show on 96.5 KECO, Manning said one of his undersheriffs completed the instructor course last week.
