Thanksgiving Thoughts from a Rancher

by: Jerry Nine – Woodward, Okla.

Every time I look up and think wow it's another holiday, and then I think that year sure went fast. I stay extremely busy, but it's my nature, and at times during the day I don't like idle time. If you are a rancher, farmer, or cattleman you can always find plenty to do. The older we get it seems the faster time goes.

Our short stay on earth is merely a blink of an eye compared to eternity. All of us need to evaluate that this week is Thanksgiving. For a lot of families it's a fun time to get together, eat, watch your favorite sports team, and then probably eat more. Ask yourself, why was I allowed to be born in America with all these freedoms and a lot of others in the world not? Why was I allowed to have good parents who taught us to be honest, work hard, and go to church? Why was I allowed to be raised on a farm and could have been raised in a big city in the middle of gangs and corruption. I don't know the real answer to these questions, but I do know that I should tell God thank you and remind my kids and family to do the same.

Let's never take all these freedoms for granted, as we do have quite a lot of people living in America that don't appreciate it and want to destroy it. I know I have a lot of issues that I need to work on. This year let's all try to be happier and make those around us happy too. If you know someone by themselves this holiday, invite them over or take them something to eat. I am reminded of a few years ago stopping for a few minutes to talk to an elderly man when I said I have got to go, and he thanked me for stopping and talking to him. It wasn't that I was special, it was the fact that someone stopped to talk to him.

When is turkey bad for your health? When you were the turkey. Do you know which side of the turkey has more feathers?

The outside. A policeman told me he dreaded Thanksgiving cause he's afraid there will be foul play. I hope you are eating beef instead of turkey this Thanksgiving, but, if you must eat turkey this one time, gobble it up then go eat a steak and tell me which one you like better. You don't have to tell me, I already know.

Editor's note: The views expressed here are the author's own and do not represent the view of The Penny News. Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma.

Four sue AirGas, Holiday Inn after toxic gas leak at Weatherford hotel

November 24, 2025 • Weatherford, OK – Four people have filed a civil lawsuit against AirGas and the Holiday Inn Express & Suites in Weatherford after a massive anhydrous ammonia leak sent 34 victims to hospitals, including two in critical condition, and triggered wide evacuations across the city.

Weatherford attorney Clayton B. Bruner filed the suit in Custer County District Court on behalf of injured residents. The lawsuit names AirGas, the Holiday Inn Express & Suites in Weatherford, and affiliated entities as defendants.

According to Bruner, the leak released a toxic cloud of anhydrous ammonia in and around the hotel, as well as nearby residential and commercial areas. The incident led to mass evacuations, school and business closures, and nursing home evacuations, along with dozens of injuries.

The incident occurred on the evening of November 12, 2025, when an AirGas tanker truck carrying about 25,000 pounds of anhydrous ammonia was parked behind the Holiday Inn Express & Suites. The driver had parked the truck at the hotel to check in for a room and rest.

That night, a mechanical failure on the AirGas truck allegedly caused a major release of anhydrous ammonia into the air in and around the property. Some guests were forced to break windows to escape, according to the filing.

Authorities say the toxic cloud drifted beyond the hotel, prompting emergency responders to issue evacuation and shelter in place orders for hundreds of Weatherford residents and businesses. The lawsuit seeks damages for medical bills, pain and suffering, and other losses tied to the incident.

Hays sentenced to life in prison for 2024 murder of Elk City man

November 20, 2025 • Sayre, OK – A Beckham County man convicted in the 2024 shooting death of Colter Jake Vaught has been sentenced to life in prison with the possibility of parole.

Clayton Samson Hays, 38, of Carter, received the sentence in Beckham County District Court after the judge followed the jury’s recommendation of life. Under the sentence, Hays will be eligible for parole after serving 38 years.

Vaught’s mother delivered an emotional victim impact statement before the court imposed the sentence.

Hays was found guilty of first-degree murder on October 3, 2025, following a five-day jury trial in Sayre. Jurors deliberated before returning a verdict of guilty and recommending life for Hays.

The case stems from a shooting on January 11, 2024, near an oilfield business on South Merritt Road in Elk City. Investigators said Hays fired a 9mm handgun at Vaught, 42, during a confrontation at a stop sign. Hays told authorities Vaught tried to enter his semi-truck and began striking him, and that he fired in self-defense. Vaught was shot in the chest and died at the scene.

According to a probable cause affidavit, investigators reported finding no visible injuries on Hays consistent with a physical struggle. The affidavit also outlined an ongoing feud between the two men, including a verbal altercation at the Vaught family home just weeks before the shooting.

Hays was initially charged with first-degree manslaughter, but prosecutors later upgraded the charge to first-degree murder.

While out on a $500,000 bond in May 2024, Hays drew additional scrutiny when he was accused of desecrating a roadside memorial for Vaught. An affidavit alleges that on May 16, a pickup stopped at the memorial and someone threw a white plastic bag at the base of the cross. The bag was later found to contain animal feces. GPS data from Hays’ ankle monitor allegedly placed him at the scene at the time of the incident.

He was arrested the next day and booked back into the Beckham County Jail. In addition to the murder charge, Hays was charged with outraging public decency in connection with the memorial incident.

With the judge’s ruling, Hays will begin serving his life sentence in the custody of the Oklahoma Department of Corrections, with parole eligibility coming after 38 years.

Sedation Dentistry Calms Fears...
Take a pill and snooze through your dental appointment.

For many Americans, going to the dentist is a frightful event. If you are one of the 145 million people who avoid the dentist due to fear, we have the solution... Sedation Dentistry.

You can now experience your dental appointment through a totally relaxed and comfortable environment. With the help of Sedation Dentistry, you will wake up to find that your dental appointment is over and the restorations have been completed painlessly.

For those with a busy schedule, we can accomplish more dentistry in one appointment which means fewer visits to the dentist.

Sedation Dentistry is available for everything from simple restoration to the most complex procedures. We are very sensitive to our patients needs, especially those with high fear and apprehension. Now we can put an end to anxiety with this safe and wonderful technique of sedation.

We are proud to be able to offer Sedation Dentistry and offer hope to those who have been avoiding the dentist due to fear. If you would like to know more, call our team with your questions.
