Packers, Prices, and a Rancher's Reality

by: Jerry Nine – Woodward, Okla.

What an interesting business we cattlemen are in. It is hard to make a living unless you borrow a lot of money. And yes, our business is interesting if you are making money; otherwise, when losing, it's a very frustrating business.

A few weeks ago Pres. Trump came out publicly and said beef is too high; thus we had to get it cheaper as the public was frustrated with grocery prices. A friend of mine that lives in the city said to me, well, it's too high, so if you know my personality, I said, well, you Democrats are just going to have to eat chicken. Oh, calm down Democrats, it's only a joke. I'm pretty sure cattlemen groups finally grew some gonads and let Trump know that it's not that ranchers are getting rich because of gouging consumers; there are other issues.

I'm curious where these cattlemen groups were a few years ago when the packers were making $600 to $1200 per head, and that lasted for quite a long spell. And there were only a few of us that had the guts to speak out against the gouging we were getting. Then it appears to me after Trump said no, it isn't the cattlemen, it's the foreign-owned packing houses that are the problem. Then, ironically, within 2 weeks one packer announces they were closing a big plant in Nebraska and cutting a third in Amarillo.

I don't think that announcement just accidentally happened that quick after Trump's. And though they were saying don't investigate, we are losing a lot of money, well, perhaps they should have saved some of that large money profits like we cattlemen have to do if we are going to survive when it gets bad.

Whatever the case, that initial announcement plus follow-through sell-off from investors kept taking it lower. We have gained a lot back, and cattle auctions seemed very optimistic this past week.

At my boss's funeral I'm going to kneel down at the casket and say, "Who's thinking outside the box now?"

I went to my therapist this past week, and yes, anyone who has ever owned a sale barn has one. My therapist said I want you to write letters to everyone that complained to you at your sale and then throw them into the fire. I said OK, but what do I do with the letters.

Editor's note: The views expressed here are the author's own and do not represent the view of The Penny News. Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattlemen who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma.

Wheeler Texas woman injured in rollover crash on I-40

December 8, 2025 • Caddo County, OK – A Wheeler Texas woman was injured late Saturday night after her vehicle rolled multiple times along Interstate 40 in Caddo County.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol reports the crash happened at 10:23 pm Sunday on I-40 westbound near mile marker 90. Troopers say 22 year old Abby

Marie Freeman was driving west in the outside lane when her vehicle moved into the inside lane then went into a driverside broadslide. The vehicle slid back into the outside lane then left the roadway to the right and hit a ditch.

OHP says the vehicle rolled two and a half times before coming to rest on its driver side, partially pinning Freeman.

She was injured but not killed in the crash. No passengers were in the vehicle and she was wearing a seatbelt.

Next of kin has been notified. The collision remains under investigation.

Cordell's Andy Davis filed without opposition and will keep Office No. 1.

Sentinel will have two contested seats. Office No. 1 features incumbent Amy Sanders against Riley Ridling. Office No. 4 has Beau Moles and Aaron Spinhirne, with Sky Wilson terming out of the position.

Western Technology Center saw a single filing from Ray Challis.

Busey Family Makes Major Gift to SWOSU Bulldogs Angels Fund

December 4, 2025 • Weatherford, OK – Southwestern Oklahoma State University (SWOSU) has announced a major charitable contribution from longtime benefactors and alumni Philip Busey, Jr., '04, and his wife, Heather (Ratcliffe) Busey, '04, of Oklahoma City.

This latest generous gift from the Buseys will support the SWOSU Bulldog Angels Fund. The fund is a vital resource to SWOSU students when all other options for assistance are exhausted or unavailable.

Since its inception, the Bulldog Angels Fund has helped hundreds of SWOSU students who are facing extreme financial pressures to stay enrolled and on track.

The Eakly Cornerstone Church has a free clothes closet on the 3rd Saturday of each month from 9:00 to noon. Everything is free. The church is located at 107 Church Street in Eakly. We also have a blessing box outside the church that stays stocked with food and daily essentials. The blessing box is open at all times. If anyone wants to donate to either, don't hesitate to get in touch with us. We hope to help people in our community who are in need. May God bless each of you in a special way.
