Thanking God & Praying for Rain

by: Jerry Nine – Woodward, Okla.

He was ridiculed, laughed at, mocked, spit on, cursed,, made fun of, whipped, and beaten until you couldn't recognize him and carried a cross for himself to be nailed to and then forgave them. If he could forgive them for that then we should be able to forgive others. All this is just a bad story without the resurrection. With so much chaos in the world and some places people are being killed because they believe in Jesus we need to be thankful that we live in America and at this stage have all the freedoms that we have.

I am also thankful for having a great cattle market these past 2 years. Our market went lower for 2 weeks after the bombing of Iran but these last 2 weeks have basically gone up everyday recovering a lot of what we lost. It's hard to buy anything at the auction where you feel like they were worth the money. Our big problem right now in our area is that we are extremely dry. Some of my wheat looks like I just planted it and you would look at it and say that I didn't get a very good stand. The grass is actually trying to green up and it makes you wonder how it could look that good with no moisture for quite some time. My Dad used to always say that it will rain right before it's too late. So, it must be close to raining.

Bred cows and pairs are in strong demand. I have had quite a few calls asking me about the price and where they could find some good young cows.

But even at the auction if a 3 or 4 year old open cow comes into the ring and acts wild she still goes home to be bred. Whereas a lot of years that wild one would go to slaughter. Let the good times roll and I hope it keeps rolling.

Ok, so I have to be honest. I was in the bar the other night and 2 large women with accents came in and sat across from me. I said, "Cool accents, are you two ladies from Scotland?". I don't remember much after that.

I just learned the woman who invented throat lozenges recently died at 92. But they said there was no coffin at the funeral.

Editor's note: The views expressed here are the author's own and do not represent the view of The Penny News. Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma.

Beckham County Jail Earns Third Straight Perfect Inspection Score

April 6, 2026 • Sayre, OK – The Beckham County Jail has once again received a perfect inspection, marking its third consecutive 100 percent score, according to Sheriff Derek Manning.

“We just had our annual inspection again and another 100 percent. Three in a row, I can’t tell you how rare that is and very, very proud of my staff,” Manning said.

Jail inspections evaluate a wide range of conditions, focusing on safety, cleanliness, and compliance with state standards. Inspectors review everything from sanitation and lighting to space requirements and routine operational procedures.

“They’re looking for deficiencies and things where it’s unsanitary, it’s unsafe, it’s not meeting space standards and requirements,” Manning said. “They’re looking for things that are not in the best interest of the folks that we house in there because it is our job to keep them safe and keep them housed and fed.”

Manning noted that the inspection process also includes verifying that staff are completing required checks in a timely manner and maintaining proper facility conditions throughout the jail.

Recent efforts by jail staff helped ensure the facility was in top condition. During a period of lower inmate population, Captain Scott and his team took the opportunity to complete maintenance projects, including repainting and deep cleaning the housing pods.

“We had a little bit of a lower population count than we had had for a while and so while we had that lower count, they went through and painted all the pods and cleaned them up and made sure that they were as in good condition as they could be,” Manning said. “Not knowing that the inspection was coming, that just kind of happened to be the good timing.”

Manning emphasized that the achievement reflects the dedication of the jail staff and the importance of maintaining high standards year-round.

“So we’re very proud of the work they do and it’s a big deal,” he said.

Beyond recognition, the sheriff said the consistent high marks benefit the entire county by helping reduce liability and ensuring a safer environment for both inmates and staff.

“It means a lot for the county because what that does is it just creates a safer atmosphere both for the inmates and for our staff and reduces the chance that the county is going to be involved in a situation that could cost them money,” Manning said.
