Fat Cattle & Dry Fields

by: Jerry Nine – Woodward, Okla.

going to the feedlot. At least the sales I have seen the cripples and fleshy cows are going to slaughter plus bulls that have some yield to them. Otherwise, all the two year old cows are being bred or going to the feedlot. The 3 to 5 year old and open are going back to try to breed them. I saw a string of fat fat cows that were bred going back to have another calf. If I had taken them to my grass they would have thought they died and went to hell.

At Sunday school one man said, "I learned a valuable lesson when I got married. I told my new wife her chicken was dry, not like Moms". He said it was 4 years before she cooked chicken again. If I get married I'm going to tell my wife I like dry chicken.

Editor's note: The views expressed here are the author's own and do not represent the view of The Penny News. Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma.

The other day my oldest son asked me if I could pay him for the cattle he had hauled for me and also some other work done for me. It had been a couple of months since I had paid him. When he texted me the amount my response was "Geez", meaning that's quite a bit. I left his check on the table when I got back 2 days later I texted him and said, "You never picked up your check on the table at my house". He said, "Well when you said 'Geez' I thought that meant maybe you needed to wait a few days to pay me". I said, "Well then I think I will start saying 'Geez' more often".

What on earth made fat cattle go up $10.00 cwt in the matter of 4 to 5 days? Were the packers slow bidding the week before? $246.00 cwt didn't seem that bad to me as that is what I received on a grid basis. However my cattle yielded and grabbed well enough even with 3 marked cows, I guess, and 13 marked over 30 months and they still picked up $10.00 cwt more as the grade and yield was great. I hate to tell you that there was an end of longhorn cross on them. It's a lot more fun feeding cattle than a few times I remember. One man told me last week he sold some in Nebraska for $256.00 and I heard there were some at $258.00.

The drought is the biggest obstacle for us in our area. I had some wheat fields that never got over 2 inches tall. I'm sure there are some cows being sold because of the drought in other areas too. But, this is the first time I have ever seen all the thin to medium flesh cows

“In Case You Missed It Last Week”

By Paragon News Director Jared Atha

THE LATEST: Death of Politician Remains Under Investigation

May 4, 2025 • Sayre, OK – Authorities in Beckham County played a key supporting role in the search and discovery of Oklahoma Senate candidate Barry Christian, whose body was later found inside his vehicle in a remote area near Erick.

According to Beckham County Sheriff Derek Manning, the case began as a missing persons report out of Sayre, with the Sayre Police Department requesting assistance from the sheriff’s office.

“We received that report and were asked to help by pinging phones and sharing information through our app,” Manning said. “At that point, we had no solid leads.”

Christian, a Republican candidate for State Senate District 38, had reportedly missed a scheduled meeting tied to his campaign, raising early concerns.

Search Leads Deputies to Remote Wildlife Area

Investigators focused on the possibility that Christian had traveled along Highway 30, south of Sayre, near the Sandy Sanders Wildlife Management Area, a rugged and expansive region commonly referred to locally as “the breaks.”

A deputy searching the area encountered a hunter who reported seeing a vehicle deeper inside the wildlife area. Following that tip, authorities located the vehicle.

“Within a few minutes of entering the area, my deputy found the vehicle,” Manning said. “Inside was a deceased male, later identified as Mr. Christian.”

The area where the vehicle was found is known for its rough terrain, limited road access, and poor cell service, which complicated communication and search efforts.

“It’s very easy to get lost down there,” Manning said. “There are no straight roads, and communication is unreliable.”

OSBI Takes Over Investigation

Once the vehicle and body were discovered, the case was turned over to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, which is now leading the investigation.

Manning said his department secured the scene and assisted as needed before stepping back.

“Our job was to secure the area and support OSBI,” he said. “From there, we follow their direction.”

Authorities remained on site until late that evening to ensure the scene was properly handled and transferred.

High-Profile Case Draws Public Attention

Manning noted that the case has drawn significant public and media attention due to Christian’s status as a political candidate. He acknowledged the challenges of balancing public interest with the integrity of an ongoing investigation.

“There are a lot of people involved and a lot of questions,” he said. “But it’s important to allow OSBI to conduct their investigation without interference.”

As of now, officials have not released further details regarding the circumstances surrounding Christian’s death. The investigation remains ongoing.

Warr Acres Man Arrested in Roger Mills County Arson Investigation

May 3, 2026 • Cheyenne, OK – A Warr Acres man has been arrested following an investigation into multiple fires in Roger Mills County earlier this year.

According to the Roger Mills County Sheriff’s Office, Nolan Chad Hayden Eagleston has been charged with three counts of third-degree arson, a Class C1 felony. The charges stem from three separate fires reported in early March 2026 west and northwest of Cheyenne.

Authorities say the investigation involved multiple agencies working together, including the United States Forest Service, the Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Roger Mills County Emergency Management, the Oklahoma

State Bureau of Investigation, the Warr Acres Police Department, and the District 2 Office of District Attorney Angela Marsee.

Officials have not released additional details about the fires or the extent of damage.

Eagleston is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty in a court of law.
